It's a busy Saturday at Honeysuckle Market Square,
and Fizz and Lizz Oliphant
are bubbling with excitement!

They love to help their parents, Eddie and Wendi, in their bustling soda shop.

The Oliphant family's soda shop sells coffee, ice cream, milk shakes—and,
of course, sodas.

“We’re preparing for the afternoon rush,” said Wendi.

“Lizz, will you add more bubbles to our soda machine?”

“Sure, Mom,” said Lizz,
happily, as she pushed
the big red button on
the soda machine.

Sodas without bubbles are
just plain ordinary.
But sodas with
bubbles are...bubble-icious!

I wish I could have a turn to push the big red button, thought Fizz.

As his parents and Lizz greeted three new customers—
Suzy, Howie, and Cookie Tippytail—Fizz inched closer to the soda machine.

Quickly, Fizz pushed
the red button
once, twice...

Then he pushed it
one more time, just to make absolutely sure
the soda would
be bubble-icious!

Fizz watched excitedly as Wendi poured one, two, three sodas, one for each Tippytail.

When Chewey and Peanut Scamperscoot arrived,
and the Whiskerellis, too, Wendi poured them
sodas as well.

The Honeysuckle Hollow
customers happily drank
up their sodas,
but then—oh, no!

“Hic-cup! Hic-cup! Hic-cup!”
went Suzy, Howie,
and Cookie.

“Hic-cup! Hic-cup!” went Chewy and Peanut, and Kitt, Wally, and Dixie.

“Oh—hic!—my!” cried Wally Whiskerelli. “There are—hic!—many, many bubbles
in the—hic!—soda today.”

“It’s all my fault,” confessed Fizz, blushing as
red as the soda machine button. “I’m sorry.”

“That’s—hic!—OK,”
said all the customers,
hiccupping and giggling.

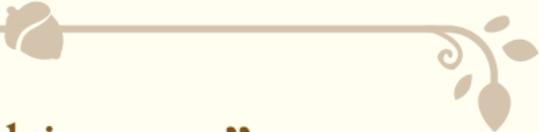

“We’ll find a remedy in
Dr. Healthnuggle’s Hiccups Begone Handbook,”
said Eddie.

After the Oliphants
studied all the solutions
in the special book, Wendi chose the one
she liked best.

Eddie and Wendi
distracted the customers
as the kids crept closer and closer until...

“BOO!” cried
Fizz and Lizz—but the customers only laughed and kept hiccupping.

“Now this one,”
Lizz decided, pointing to a page in the hiccup handbook.

“Attention!” Eddie called out to the happily
hiccupping customers.
“Please do what we do!”

Soda Shop

Soon the Oliphants and their customers were hopping on one foot while clapping hands and
whistling cheerfully.

But when the elephant family finally convinced the customers to stop, they were all still hiccupping.

“This one has to work,” Fizz said, pointing to
one more picture.

When the Oliphants
showed it to the customers,
everyone cheered.

“Yes—hic! That looks—
hic!—like fun, too!”

The customers did
spectacular somersaults
and cartwheels—until
they ran out of breath
and had to stop.

Guess what?
Their hiccups were gone!

“Thanks for the fun—
and the bubble-icious soda!”
called the customers,
waving goodbye.

As more customers crowded
in, Fizz asked, eyes twinkling, “Now may I have a turn to press the red bubble button?”

Lil' WOODZEEZ

Fizz and Lizz Oliphant like helping their parents, Wendi and Eddie, in their soda shop at Honeysuckle Market Square—especially when this means pushing the red button on the soda machine to add bubbles to the drinks! If only he could have a chance to push that button, thinks Fizz...

So he does! Right away, the bubble trouble begins—but the Oliphants' giggling customers don't seem to be bubbling over with concern!
