Welcome to Honeysuckle Hollow®

where all the woodland creatures work together
to take care of each other and their environment.

Every animal family has a special job and every day is an adventure. With their creativity, generosity and sweet spirit, these friends make chores chockfull of fun.

“Welcome to you,
MoosicalMoo family!”
cried Delores Whooswhoo.

“We’re so glad to see
you all here in Honeysuckle Hollow!”

“It was so kind of you
to invite us,” said Jessie MoosicalMoo.

“We’ll enjoy rehearsing here before we go on our opera-singing tour,” said Enzo MoosicalMoo.

“Yes,” said their kids, Nolan and Bella.

“We’ve never sung in a treehouse before!”

The next day, the owl kids,
Pete and Peep Whooswhoo,
teased their friends.

“You may hear
opera-singing coming
from our balconies!”

What's opera?
the friends wondered.

That afternoon,
the MoosicalMoos
had their first rehearsal.

The woodland friends listened, amazed. No one in Honeysuckle Hollow
had ever heard
singing like that before!

“What kind of birds
could be singing
like that?” asked Emmie Snipadoodles.

“I wonder if we could
sing like that,” said
Wally Whiskerelli and Ruby Woofwinkle.

Later, at their
Li'l Luvs & Hugs Nursery,
the Woofwinkle family
began to sing.

Up on the balcony,
the MoosicalMoos stopped
to listen. “I hear very loud
howling!” said Nolan.

The next day, at their Baabaa Spa & Hair Salon,
the Snipadoodles family
began to sing.

Up on the balcony,
the MoosicalMoos stopped
to listen. “I hear very loud
baa-ing!” said Bella.

The next day, the
Whiskerellis had a turn.
They began to sing in
their food truck.

Once again, the MoosicalMoos stopped.
“I hear very loud yowling!”
said Enzo.

That evening, Jessie asked the owls, “We hear loud sounds
while we’re rehearsing.

Do your friends
dislike our singing?”

“No, they love your singing,”
said Owen. “They’re trying to sing opera, just like you!”

“What a nice compliment!”
said Jessie, blushing.

“Maybe they’d like
to come to our final
rehearsal,” said Nolan.
“It would be fun to meet
all these music-lovers!”

“We’ll invite them!”
said Peep Whooswhoo.

“They’ll be so
surprised to meet you
and see whooooo
is singing opera from
our balconies!”
added Pete.

All the woodland
neighbors showed up
for the rehearsal.

Emmie Snipadoodles
whispered, “Now we’ll
see what kind of birds we’ve been listening to!”

As the curtains slowly
opened, the Honeysuckle
Hollow creatures gasped
in surprise.

“It’s cows making this wonderful moo-sic!”
cried Wally Whiskerelli,
with delight.

When the singing
ended, the audience
applauded.

“We wish we could
sing like you,”
called out
Patch Woofwinkle.

Jessie smiled. “We’ve decided to return after our tour—and give free singing lessons to anyone who wants to learn!”

“Hurray!” cheered the audience. “But please sing one more song now!

Encore!”

“We’ll continue singing—
if all of you will sing along!” Nolan and Bella told the audience.

And so the moo-sic
went on and on,
well into the night!

☺ The MoosicalMoos have hidden one treble clef (♬) in each picture inside this book. Can you find all 6 treble clefs?

Nolan and Bella MoosicalMoo, and their parents, Jessie and Enzo, are staying in the owl family treehouse to rehearse for their opera-singing tour. When Pete and Peep Whooswhoos tell their friends about the secret singers on their balcony, the other kids are curious. Who are the mysterious singers?

Then, when some of the woodland families try to perform their own music, it's the MoosicalMoos who have a mystery to solve. Who's making those loud sounds while they are rehearsing, and why? Maybe opera-singers are not welcomed in Honeysuckle Hollow!
